at Spirit Lodge

242 E. 52nd Street, Pittsburgh, PA

Free event ~ food and drinks available ~ ID req'd by the establishment

Come to meet Cooperative worker-owners tell their stories of sharing ownership and its radical advantages. Network with other regional businesses, community groups, and entrepreneurs. PLUS a game corner for hands-on learning to run your own co-op!

The Pittsburgh Chamber of Cooperatives is the hands-on resource for worker-owned and member-owned businesses in SW Pennsylvania.

Cooperatives many benefits. Here are some: 1) cooperatives are owned by members, so they build wealth 2) they're locally focused, so cooperatives make communities more resilient 3) cooperatives work on the triple bottom line principle: for people, planet, and profit 4) members of cooperatives share the burden in hard times and the benefits in good times 5) and cooperatives are run democratically. Now that's American business!
